Registering with U.S. Embassy/Consulate

Heifer Study Tour participants are encouraged to register with the nearest U.S. Embassy or consulate. Registration is important as it will keep you updated on local travel security and allows the State Department to assist U.S. citizens during an emergency. U.S. citizens can register at <https://travelregistration.state.gov> or directly with the nearest U.S. Embassy or consulate.

Travel information can be found at the U.S. State Department and Embassy websites:

Health and Vaccination Information

To ensure proper health preparations prior to your tour, meet with your health care provider. Information and medical/inoculation recommendations for travelers can be found at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention website - <http://wwwn.cdc.gov/travel/destinationPeru.aspx>. Be aware that some countries require documented proof of a current yellow fever vaccination upon entering the country.

Required Travel Documents

If your passport will expire within 6 months from the date of entry, you will need to renew your passport prior to leaving the country. If you have less than two blank pages left in your passport, you will need to apply for more pages. Country specific requirements are listed below.

Peru

- A U.S. Passport is required to enter and exit Peru
- Tourists must also provide evidence of return or onward travel. This can be done with your flight itinerary.
- An airport exit tax is required when departing Peru. This tax is included in the cost of your trip.
